

Benefit for the Victims of the Tsunami Disaster:
Bamboo, Silk and Tea.
A concert of Japanese music and a rite of memorial.
Friday, July 8th, 2011 at 7:30,
Gordon Chapel, Old South Church

Elizabeth Reian Bennett, first woman to become a Grand Master of the shakuhachi, joins kotoist Sumie Kaneko, a graduate and award winner of the Tokyo School of Fine Arts, in a program of Japanese music. Master of Tea William Thrasher performs a simple memorial tea.
Info Old South Church (617) 536-1970.

Donation Suggested: $20. All checks to the Japan Disaster Relief Fund-Boston. 100% funding of disaster victims and organizations on the ground.